2005 Davis Family Vineyards Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley

2005 was another warm and consistent growing season which helped Guy to produce another bold and incredibly balanced Cabernet. From the same 2 vineyards as in years past: the Wight Vineyard, near the border of St. Helena and Rutherford, brings brighter fruit and exotic spice to the blend, and Stagecoach Vineyard, almost a half mile above the Valley, brings black fruits and mocha notes. There is still that distinctive balance and food friendly character that has always been a signature of Guy's wines. Excellent structure and tannin levels lead the way into the mouthcoating finish. This wine is incredibly enjoyable now and should also age beautifully for many years to come. Guy believes that this 2005 Cabernet Sauvignon is one of his best Cabernets yet.
