June, 2008

94 POINTS

“A sensational discovery, this 2006 Syrah from two and one-half acre block was co-fermented with 3% Viognier. Its dense ruby/purple color is followed by an exquisite nose of black-berries, spring flowers, earth, and subtle wood. In the mouth, the wine exhibits beautiful concentration, peppery, creme de cassis flavors, good acidity, and ripe tannin. Its seamlessness, purity, complexity, and length are all impressive. It can be drunk now and over the next 5-7 years.”

92 POINTS

“A terrific Syrah. Fresh, ripe and concentrated, with vivid plum, blackberry and raspberry fruit that’s zesty, complex and balanced, gaining depth, richness, complexity and length. Drink now through 2012.”
